

YOGA! YOGA WORKSHOP! YOGA!

Happy Spring!

When?            Saturday, April 17 10-Noon
Saturday, May 15 10-Noon
Saturday, June 26 10-Noon

Where?            In Fox Lake – the Lakefront Park Building
I'll send directions if you need them. It is easy to find – near the Fox Lake Train station, and overlooking Fox Lake.

Fee?                $15.00 - For two hours, you ask? YES!

I'm looking forward to seeing you, as we get those bodies to stretch, to relax, to do all the things we want them to do! So bring someone along, and let's have some great mornings. All workshops are 10-Noon.

So what is a WORKSHOP???? I haven't a clue. I know it's not work – and I know we won't shop – (although I'll probably have supplements and soy candles!) It's just going to be a longer time than a usual yoga class, so we can spend more time on deep breathing, on stretching, on relaxing, and meditation.

I'll be collecting non-perishable items -- - sample sizes of shampoos, soaps, toothpastes, etc. --- to send to the military troops.
